Additional Questions for Submission

Question: With the New York area expecting a major snowstorm today through tomorrow eve, we are concerned about the timely delivery of our proposal tomorrow to your offices in Raleigh. As such, to be compliant with the deadline, can we submit our proposal electronically by 2pm ET, with hard copies to follow for delivery Friday or Monday (depending on weather)?

Answer: Due to the inclement weather in certain areas of the country, electronic transmission of the responses to the Bond Counsel RFQ will be accepted, with post submission delivery of hard copies. These electronic copies must match the hard copy exactly and any change or discrepancy will be grounds for immediate disqualification.

Electronic submission should be emailed to bondcounselRFQ@ncturnpike.org. Please indicate within your email submission the delivery date for the hard copies. We will make an effort to confirm receipt of each electronic submission.

Question: Can firms turn in the copies at the office of the NCTA in Raleigh?

Answer: Submissions can be hand delivered to the NCTA office. The NCTA address is listed below.
